the CARETAKERS

It is that time of year again, when wintry greyness engulfs the land, end-of-year tests loom in every classroom and comfort can be found in the warmth of a candle, the bottom of a teapot and an earful of stories in the inglenook.

Armed with a jolly barrel full of explosive tales, The Caretakers have put together a show full of merry murders and blazing plots, enough to blow the roof off any school.
